SHROPSHIRE HUNT BALL.
The Shropshire Hunt Ball took place in the Shrewsbury Music Hall, last evening, when a large and brilliant company, consisting of the elite of Shropshire and the adjoining counties, responded to the invitations issued by the Shropshire Hunt Committee. The president is Lt.-Col. W. Darby, Esq., and amongst Sir Offley Wakeman, Bart., and one, Colonel Lloyd, while the stewardship committee consists the committee:—P. Bibby, Esq., Colonel Cotes, Sir Walter O. Corbet, Bart., R. E. Heywaring, Esq., and J. S. Phillips, Esq. The duties of the night's ball have not been more successfully carried out by H. W. Amblit, Shrewsbury. The spacious ballroom was brilliantly illuminated with the electric light by Messrs Lea and Sons, and the scene presented was one of dazzling splendour. Many wonderful dresses and jewels were displayed with the best possible effect, and the whole of the arrangements were admirably carried out. Colonel Lloyd, and R. Heywaring, Esq.,
