ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON.

Zoological Gardens, Regent's Park, London. April 4th, in the house of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Baring, 16, St. John's Wood, London. The following gentlemen were present: A. M. P. E., Mr. P. E. Goodrich, M.R.C.S., G. F. Schott, M.R.C.S., Mr. D. H. M., Mr. J. B. H. Brown, M.R.C.S., and others, who were conducted by the officers of the gardens. The party consisted of a series of foreign birds, with skins, in the form of a large cabinet, which was opened to the public. The party consisted of a series of foreign birds, with skins, in the form of a large cabinet, which was opened to the public. The party consisted of a series of foreign birds, with skins, in the form of a large cabinet, which was opened to the public.