TRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1876.

THE WEEKLY POST.—A New Tale, by CATAIM MANN EIRS, "Gene Wynn: a Romance of the Way," appears every Saturday in the Weakly Post.

"A Tampled Web," by the auther of "The Mystery of Aberstone Grange," appears well saturday in the Webly Post.

A Series of Sketches, entitled "Notes of Travel"
in Australia and California, by J. A, Lancronn, LLD, appears week by week in the Webly
Post.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Louse of Lords, yesterday, the referred to a statement manner the course of the discussion

FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1876.

THE WEEKLY POST.—A New Tale, by Caran Mayes Dirth, "dwen Vyon: a Romance of the Wyon," and in the day proceed in the middle and upper classes of society, and in the Company of the Wyon," a Romance of the Wyon, "a peace new yon was paid that the peace and in the middle and upper classes of society, and instead of the word, and instead of the word, and instead of the word, and the day part of the Wyon, "a Romance of the Wyon," a peace never yet startedy in the it. Ultimately the amendment was healthy a large decide what were appeared to the word of the Wyon," a both the company of the word of the Wyon, and the word of the Wyon was part of the Wyon when the word of the Wyon was part o

THE BIRMINGHAM DAILY POST,

FRIDAY, AUGUST 4,

CORRESPONDENCE