20 May

My dear Darwin,
I got your letter
at the J.C. yesterday.
It will be a pleasure to write a few lines
of remembrance of your Father. I wish I could express a small part of the love we all had for him. I had not many letters from him and I fear they may not have been been preserved with the care they deserved. As soon as I return home I will look for any I may have and send them

to you.

I hope if you are at Downe I may have the pleasure of seeing you, if a call
in the middle of the day would be agreeable to you. This week I shall be away, 1st at Hartley, 2<sup>d</sup> at Norwich; but I should be able to get down for an hour some day in the following week -

If however you are not inclined to see
friends do not hesitate to bid me not come.

I had a communication about The Prison Friendly Club, and a few present to dispatch it.

This was forwarded to me from Scotland, & I had just time before a meeting to express my opinion that such would be a foolish proceeding;
and if persisted in I must resign my Trusteesship first -

With all our kindest
regards believe me,
My dear Darwin
Faithfully
Yours
J Brodie Jones
