My dear Sir

I send by this post a small hall of such letters of your late father as I happen to have saved together unfortunately I am not careful to keep letters strictly distributed - I feel very few now (non-official). I doubt if there be any of recent enough to make extracts from except these still unscathed but if I find holes they appear like a bird's nest you'd better to send them to you.

I write you are not willing to do anything.
By one such kind letter I sh^d. like to have them again when you are fully finished with them.

They would be nearly about 20 yrs old - but alas!
needed as to the year, in brief every one I find.

Very truly yours
D. Oliver
