Dear Mr. Darwin

I feel confident I had your father's ^{last} notes on the subject of my white ropes turning purple which he & Hooker were much interested in. I have found them; but cannot get find the one a year before, whether still puzzled about it. when he first heard about it from me. and in I hope I may find some which he read it was an more notes for I am interesting case of what going over all old letters he had referred to in a & papers. in order to certain page of his destroy all not worth book on plants, which keeping, & to have those I found explained the together: I fear I did cause; but his clerk not sufficiently keep notes show he was private letters in pieces gone by. with

with very kind regards Believe me
very sincerely yours
