

De Vries

Amsterdam 30 May 1882.

Dear Sir.

I am very glad to send you all the letters written by your father, that are in my possession, and freely permit you to make copies of them. As these letters are of course of great value to me, I shall be much obliged to you, if you will afterwards return them to me.

I remain, dear Sir

Yours faithfully

J. J. de Vries.

P.S. Of course all these letters were addressed to me.
