

N.B. There are a number of collections in the Darwin Library.

There is the original deposit, the Darwin House deposit (D), the set of (Pers), and two Botany School deposits (both BOT, but which are not amalgamated together).

There is also a small collection of items gleaned from other parts of the University Library stock.

Great care must be taken to return items to their proper place, no items should be replaced without the fetching slip being checked as present, and correct.

Lists are available, please check these if not sure, and always consult them first for location.

Additional material found in UL book classes which contain marginalia and other notations, removed from their locations and to be kept in MSS stack with Dar Lib.
