

DARWIN.—That the works of Darwin are in request in this District is evidenced by the fact that the Origin of Species is never in the South Eighth street Library longer than five minutes at a time. It shows that the discussion on the subject in our columns has awakened an intense degree of interest in it, which will not fail to stimulate thought and to quicken the minds of the people as the result. These discussions in the end are bound to do good.