

I just wrote you after death in the letters in you know we shall be very glad to see you at every time - but I may be well send them

Br. J. 18h

My dear Frank

I send you herewith all your father's letters to me during the last ten years with the subscription to which I treasure very much as much relate rather to my life than to his -

They have their spirit

I also send the second concordance of which I think you surely would possess a copy - There is no telling what that myrtales ortho paper might do someday or other - and he has damned himself in addition to being damned ab externo, in his letters to me

I then I read the letter you written with me about the spirit rapping business without detecting it from the other papers - I really think ~~it~~ the whole ought to be the light some day with your brother George's comments

1872 was the date of our moving into this house - when heaps of letters & papers got stowed away together & have since suffered disturbance only from
