Dear Sir,

I am sorry to say that the two enclosed here with are the only letters of your father's which I am at present able to lay hands upon. I fancied that I had several more in my possession - and will look carefully among my papers and forward any that I may recover.
You are quite welcome to copy the enclosed and publish any part of them for their proper.

I may as well mention, in order to explain in substance in one of the enclosed about my having some "Kerby Hood" in me that I was "brought up in Mr Kerby parish of Rosham - that he was my Uncle - and that I ultimately became his Curate.
Hence perhaps my love for national history <sup>from</sup> which however a London sphere of duty has all but precluded me.

It is just possible that my old friend Dr Paget of Cambridge way to all to supply some remains of your Father.

He certainly was one of Pope's Hen Lewis parties when we went as members in one of the enclosed papers to Cambridge.

Possibly my dear old friend Thurcell, now of Oxburgh Rectory, & the Ferry, Norfolk, may have had some acquaintance with your Father though he was 3 years his junior.

I must wish that I could recall more of your Father's sayings and doings than are contained on the accompanying Memoranda - But it is not easy to travel back in memory over so many years.

I trust that you are glad to see supplies from other quarters and can only say that I await your forth coming memoir with the greatest interest.

I am
dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
J. M. Rodwell
