Dale House.

Oxford. June 1.

Dear Sir.

Mr. Aldin Smith has today returned to me these letters of Mr. Darwin's to my husband, which very stupidly I had forgotten that I had lent him to look at but I hope that this will not cause you to incur the trouble of hunting down on the subject I mean that you will be able kindly to return these with the res. I lent you the other day. Yours truly. Robt Mott
