My dear Sir,

I enclose copies of four letters which I
received at intervals
from your father.
The originals I very much value, and shall with pleasure send them to you, if there is any thing in them of which you wish to make use, but otherwise

would rather not run
any risk of their being lost in passing
to and fro.

In earnest sympathy
with the great loss
your family have sustained.

I am
Very truly yours
Thomas R. R. Stebbins

Francis Darwin Esq.
