S' Maw

June 4.

Dear Sir

I enclose another copy of one of your father's letters,
which I forgot, it is in reply to a communication I had sent him with regard to the instants
of the hour, and which he has introduced at

Page 76. of the Lawsent of Man
2^d Edition. The latter part of the letter refers to what he mentions at page 179. of the same work. Please retain the copies

Yours truly
J. W. Westcott
