

Office of
JOHN DEAN CATON.
1900 Calumet Ave.

Chicago, Nov 3 1887

My dear Sir

Your favor of May 29th last reached me at Ottawa Illinois after a long delay, owing to the omission of "Illinois" in the direction. It first went to Ottawa Canada and at last reached me.

I enclose copies of three letters which your distinguished father did me the honor to write me which are all I have been able to find though I think I received several others. I am afflicted with Catarrhs in my eyes - This makes it unpleasant for me to either read or write. Hence this delay.

I prize the originals very highly hence I send you copies which I presume will answer your purpose as well. I should be happy to be of any further service to you in my power.

Very truly yours,
J. D. Caton

Mr F Darwin

P.S. I have a residence here as well as at Ottawa Ill

not to be refused

Cotton, J. D.