

Dordrecht

Dear Sir,

I am very happy to be able to send you the letters I had the honour to receive from your Father. Whatever you might wish to make public of any letter, I think not that there can be any objection from my side.

I regard these letters as a dear Souvenir of the greatest, the Pivotal and most modest Man I ever saw. They belong to my precious.

Yours most sincerely

Amst., 8 Jun 1782