Hotel des Palmes. Palermo.

April 1. 1873

Dear Mr. Garwin,

It was this morning that I received your letter and its enclosures. I am very glad indeed that I sent you the three letters of your late father, as you intimate a disposition to make use of them. Pray do so! I am much gratified in this manner.

for very friendly intercourse with one for whom, in so short a time, I conceived a real affectionate regard.

Trusting that you & the whole of your family are tolerably well, this curious weather -
- here as elsewhere -

Remain Dear Sir, Yours
