

Bain's

Meriden, 27th July

1882

Dear Sir,

Here is the letter
that I had from your father in acknowledging my criticism on his work on "Expression".
I send also by
same post a copy of the critique itself.

I am not aware of possessing any other letter. If there was any note in connection with that imperfect copy of Lambert's Pammenopneia,
I have no
recollection of it.

I am glad, however,
to furnish you with

the example of your father's mode of receiving criticisms
in his veins: although,
doubtless, you do have many equally good.

Yours faithfully

Alban

Francis Darwin, Esq
