Dear Sir,

I have just read your letter in the Gardeners' Chronicle of to day, and I have much pleasure in forwarding to you the enclosed, which I received from your benevolent father twenty years ago. It refers to some information I appear to have furnished to him, and which, in accordance with his well known habit he never failed to acknowledge. Most likely

The letter may be of no use to you, but I send it nevertheless, and you are welcome to make what use of it you think proper. You will perceive that the letter is somewhat soiled, as since your father's death, I have been pleased to show to my friends the handwriting of so distinguished, and so good a man.

I am Yours faithfully
P. Yrives

J. Garwin Esq.
