Hotel des Palmes. Palermo.

April 1. 1883

Dear Mr Darwin,

It was this morning that I received your letter and its enclosures. I am very glad indeed that I sent you the three letters of your late father, as you intimate a disposition to make use of them. Pray do so! I am much gratified in thus renewing memories, for a very friendly intercourse with me for whom, in so short a time, I conceived a real affectionate regard.

Trusting that your mother and all your family are tolerably well, this curious weather -
- here as elsewhere -

Remain sincerely yours

H. A. Herbertson
