THE STANDARD, THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1882.

IRELAND.

(CORRESPONDENCE.)

DUBLIN, WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Two Prisoners, John
Herald, for the murder of Richard Roche, near Bush inst., was held to-day Tralleston, R.M., and Mr.
Justices. There was the Accused, and at the
was discharged, and Fitz-period of eight days.
ected tenants to-day at them to their holdings up arrears and taking the present rent.
d to do with the
be reinstated. Sub-their families, attended and applied for outdoor itary and police drawn
after a long discussion, and each member of
for four weeks, the Board, by twenty-six rning, consequent on William Abraham,

the first appeal from its jurisdiction to deumstances was heard.
Act the Commission
ce 1870, and provided aths of the passing of obtained by threat
nce, and if they gard to the
are unreasonable.
ther the reserving of
in itself a "term"
provisions of the Act ed it was argued that work, even though
ed the jowas not contrary Coupur could not be a
Act. On the tically depriving exorbitant rent
having regard
was reserved;
Justice Fitz-
an exorbitant
as to void the ght, where she ntinue to depreompensation for ut right, and was denied to lease-breaking ase was quite was distinctly nothing in the
ing an exorbi-
o that reserva-
asonable term,
t of 1870.

MIDDLESEX.

ng by the South-
County Members,
Mr. Coope, M.P., ounding to the toast
at Southgate had rvative cause; but nging up in the
was to be done
s in promoting Prime Minister
county was that much education.
d up that sentence
too much wealth
a chance to the
e Liberal Party
nce. He thought to disregard the
on find that the
what had struck
had the honour
was the great
at constituency.
of population in
increase in the howed that they spectable classes
enting his con-
dy to co-operate
). There were constitution of sale of livings
ading members
d been brought his friend Mr.
osed by several)
because they felt ith they would e Conservative
violent attack
ng served four ury, he (Lord
W. Harcourt
nd endeavoured
would find out Gladstone had e country, and roject of taxing
ght the Budget
"four-wheeler would like to land (hear,
ord, and he
land where country

LORD H. LENNOX AT CHICHESTER.

The annual meeting of the Chichester Conservative Association was held last night at the Anchor Hotel. Lord H. Lennox, M.P., in responding to the toast of his health, said it was two years since the Government of all the Talents undertook to ruin this country in the right way, but what had been the result? The programme which the Government had published had been a destructive programme. They had ignored their influence in India; they had absolutely annihilated it in South Africa, and what was more serious still was that the Government had lost their prestige in Egypt (hear, hear). Egypt was the highway to their Indian Empire. The Suez Canal, in the event of a war breaking out in any part of the world, was absolutely necessary for the transit, not only for a neutral passage, but as a coaling and resting station for our ships of war. What would befall this country if the influence of England went on declining as it was from day to day? At the present time they had no more influence in Egypt than any of the other great Powers of Europe, whose interests in the Suez Canal and in that country were not a hundredth part of what ours was (hear, hear). As to Ireland, the heaven-born Ministers of all the Talents had more power conferred upon him to restore peace in that unhappy country than any other Government ever had before. Mr. Gladstone said "Trust in me; pass the measures which are put before you, whether you like them or not, and I will answer for it that Ireland is restored to peace." That was done; the Land Act was passed, and the Irish landlords were compelled to turn their pockets out, and let the Government pillage them from what they wanted for the purpose of restoring peace in that unhappy country. But what was the result? Why, the state of things in Ireland was far worse than it was at the time last year (hear, hear). Arian outrages were on the increase, human life was unsafe, and the Prime Minister had admitted that Ireland was in a state of social revolution. The Liberal Government had also adopted the French idea call the cloture, which he condemned. They were told to the cloture was to be adopted in order to enable the Government to pass certain great measures. From his Parliamentary experience he found that no great measure of reform that was required by the people required any such device as the cloture to pass it through the House of Commons. Mr. Gladstone had tried to explain it away by saying it would be seldom put into force; but no (Lord H.) thought a rusty weapon like that had better not be introduced into their free discussion at all, if it was to be taken out very seldom (applause). The course for the Government to have adopted under the premises was to do as they had done to individual members of Parliament who wilfully obstinately obstructed the course of public business their own purposes; but they ought not to meet great Constitutional Party like the Conservative in their attempt to crush a few individuals who themselves most decidedly offensive to the House (cheers). The new Budget was the production of the great mancer, the Prime Minister of England (laughter), relieved highway rates to the extent of a quarter a million and recovered the amount by increasing the tax on the carriages that used the highways (laughter). That sounded very much like robbing Peter to pay Paul (laughter). It was, no doubt, intended as a punishment to the aristocracy for throwing out the Compensation for Disturbance Bill; but the imposition would not be felt by the aristocracy, but only by the professional classes. In conclusion, Lord H. Lennox referred to the state of the Navy, and pointed out that in 1685, according to the present computation, France would have three ironclads more than England. Yet the country of England covered a seventh of the habitable globe, and only three days' food supply was in the country at one time, whereas France did not depend upon her own board for her food supplies, and, exclusive of Algeria, her colonies covered only 334 millions of square miles (applause).

THE BACH CHOIR.

The sixteenth public concert, and the last of the present season, of the Bach Choir took place last night at St. James's Hall, an interesting and varied programme attracting a very numerous audience. At the previous concert of this Society, it will be remembered that the famous Missa Papæ Marcelli was produced for the first time, as a whole, in this country. It was only to be anticipated, therefore, that some portion of this noble example of the early school of ecclesiastical composition would be incorporated in the scheme of the next performance. Nor was expectation disappointed, the "Credo" in six parts, unaccompanied, forming a leading feature of the first part last night. It was admirably sung, and was received with considerable warmth. The novelty of the evening, however, was Bach's "Missa Brevis" in A, for soli, double part chorus, organ and orchestra—with additional accompaniments by Mr. Ebenezer Prout. Among the multifold works for the church, the old Lutheran wrote four of these short masses, in the keys of G minor, A, and F. Some doubt attaches to the chronological order, but the one under notice is supposed to have been written about the year 1737. It is said that the subject-matter of the majority of these masses was derived from some of Bach's sacred cantatas—a fact which it easier, no doubt, to transcribe than invent. How this is true to a certain extent of the Gloria in the Missa in A. The Kyrie, however, is quite original, as is spoken of in glowing terms by Bach's contemporary, Spitta. Especial notice is drawn to the concluding movement, "Christe Eleison," which, though written in "canon" form, is yet cast in an entirely different order of music—a cry of supplication. The mass is made up of eight numbers, of which the "Domine Deus" is written for a bass voice, with violin obbligato; the "Qui tollis" is arranged for soprano solo, with two flutes obbligato, and the "Quoniam" is given to the contralto. The original score contained flutes, violins, [illegible]

FUNERAL OF THE LATE CHARLES DARWIN.

The remains of the late Mr. Darwin were laid to rest yesterday in Westminster Abbey, and a vast assemblage witnessed the sad ceremony. In accordance with the arrangements made some days previously, the body was removed on Tuesday evening from the residence of the deceased, Down House, Kent, to Westminster, and placed within the precincts of the Abbey. Yesterday morning it was taken to the Chapter House, where a large number of noblemen and gentlemen, most of whom are eminent in literature and science, were assembled to pay a last tribute of respect to the most famous naturalist of our time. From all parts of the kingdom there were representatives of various learned and scientific bodies, and there was even a large contingent of foreigners present to do honour to the deceased. There were floral tributes, too, sent from the provinces, not the least remarkable amongst which was a beautiful wreath from some members of the Liverpool Scientific Societies, represented by Mr. Isaac C. Thompson, F.R.M.S., hon. Secretary of the Microscopical Society of Liverpool. Notwithstanding that the weather was yesterday morning anything rather than inviting, fully half an hour before the time advertised for the opening of the Abbey doors the approaches were thronged with ladies and gentlemen anxious to offer a last testimony of admiration and respect to the man who had spent his life in the service of Science; and amongst that crowd were not a few who had been fellow workers with the deceased in the fields of Philosophical Science. Shortly after half-past eleven the Lord Mayor, accompanied by the Lady Mayoress, one of the Sheriffs, and the Rev. J. Billing, arrived at the Abbey, and his Lordship was conducted to a seat within the altar rails, whilst the Lady Mayoress and a lady by whom she was accompanied were provided with seats close by. They were followed by the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, accompanied by Mr. Burdett-Coutts. At a quarter to twelve o'clock the great bell of the Abbey began to toll, and its dull monotone continued till the service commenced. By this time the mourners had assembled in the Jerusalem Chamber; and the invited mourners had gathered round the coffin in the Chapter House. The coffin itself was of plain unpolished oak, [illegible] no mountings save brass handles and a breastplate bearing the inscription, "Charles Robert Darwin, born [illegible] 12th, 1809. Died April 19th, 1882." and covered with a black velvet pall, bordered in white, the [illegible] by fresh flowers wrought in em-

[illegible] minster before [illegible] the procession was formed [illegible] Abbey through [illegible] Cloisters, [illegible] Canon [illegible] the Dean's Verger, [illegible] Rev. G. Prothero, on whose [illegible] Canon Cleve, and on his left the Rev. [illegible] Body, on either side of which were the [illegible] the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of [illegible], the Earl of Derby, Mr. J. R. Lowell, the American Minister; Mr. Spottiswoode (President of the Royal Society), Sir Joseph Hooker, K.C.S.I., Mr. A. R. Wallace, Professor Huxley, Sir John Lubbock (President of the Linnæan Society), and the Rev. Canon Farrar. Immediately following the body was the chief mourner, Mr. William Erasmus Darwin, eldest son of the Deceased, followed by Mr. George Darwin, F.R.S., Mrs. Wm. Darwin, Miss Darwin, Mrs. Litchfield, Mrs. Francis Darwin, Mr. R. B. Litchfield, Mr. Horace Darwin, Mr. Leonard Darwin, B.E., Mr. Darwin, of Elston Hall; Mr. F. Alvey Darwin, Captain Charles Darwin, Mr. Reginald Darwin, of Buxton; Mrs. Vaughan Williams, Miss Wedgwood, the Rev. Charles Parker, Mr. Robert Parker, Mr. H. P. Bristowe, Q.C., Mr. Francis Galton, F.R.S., Mr. Ernest Wedgwood, Mr. Hensleigh Wedgwood, Mr. T. H. Farrer (Secretary of the Board of Trade), Mrs. Farrer, Mr. Godfrey Wedgwood, Miss A. Wedgwood, Mrs. Ruck, the Rev. Arthur Wedgwood, Mr. J. C. Hawkshaw, Mrs. Hawkshaw, Mr. George Allen, Mr. Henry Allen, M.P. Then came the invited mourners, amongst whom were the French, German, Italian, and Spanish Ambassadors, the Marquess of Salisbury, Lord Aberdare (President of the Geographical Society), Earl Spencer, Mr. Children, the Postmaster General, Sir Stafford Northcote, Mr. W. H. Smith, Sir Thomas Brassey, Sir Charles Dilke, Lord Kensington, M.P., Mr. A. J. Beresford Hope, M.P., Mr. Spencer Walpole, M.P., Sir J. R. Mowbray, M.P., Mr. J. G. Talbot, M.P., Mr. J. A. Campbell, M.P., Lord Arthur Russell, M.P., Mr. David Plunket, M.P., Mr. Edward Gibson, M.P., Dr. Lyon Playfair, M.P., Sir Farrer Herschell, M.P., Sir David Wedderburn, M.P., Sir Henry Holland, M.P., Sir Henry Bessemer, Professor Flower, F.R.S., Mr. Herbert Spencer, F.R.S., Lord Sherbrooke, Sir Henry Parkes, Sir Rutherford Alcock, Drs. Siemens, Mr. James Bryce, M.P., the Vice Chancellor of the University of Oxford, the Master of Balliol, the Regius Professor of Medicine (Dr. Acland), the Linacre Professor of Zoology (as representing the University of Oxford), the President of the College of Surgeons, the President of the College of Physicians, the Councils of the Royal, the Linnæan, the Royal Geographical, and the Geological Societies, the Master of Christ's College, Cambridge, the Head Master of the Grammar School, Shrewsbury, the Rev. Prof. Kennedy, the Rev. Prof. Pritchard, F.R.S., Professor Humphrey, F.R.S., Professor Max Muller, Professor Henry S. Smith, F.R.S., Professor Prestwich, F.R.S., Professor Hirst, F.R.S., Professor Babington, F.R.S., Professor De Chaumont, F.R.S., Sir William Thomson, F.R.S., Sir John Hawkshaw, Mr. W. H. Carpenter, C.B., F.R.S., Mr. Ray Lankester, F.R.S., Sir Henry Maine, K.C.S.I., Professor W. Boyd Dawkins, F.R.S., Mr. John Murray, and Captain Douglas Galton, Secretary of the British Association for the Advancement of Science. A deputation from the Anthropological Institute also attended.

As the Westminster clock struck the hour of noon the procession passed up the nave and through the choir, the organ pealing forth Croft's and Purcell's music, "I am the resurrection." The coffin having been [illegible]

SUPREME COURT OF J

HIGH COURT OF J
QUEEN'S BENCH D

(Before Mr. Justice Manisty, J

Hodges v. Laing and Son.— to recover damages for trespa furniture. The Defendants allege was a trespasser himself, and proper authority.—Mr. Kemp, Innes appeared for the Plaintif Q.C., and Mr. Gerard Laing for Plaintiff, Mr. John Hodges, is occupying premises in King W
The Plaintiff occupied the prem lease from the Trustees of Charin annual rent of 200*l.* from Septem ber, 1881, it was decided by the T of Mr. Hodges' premises to be tak theatre, and the Defendants were certain alterations. The Plaintiff the 3d and 4th of October t removed a part of the pots, and caused hoardings front of the house, and a hole tion wall, with the result that a rain came in, and caused damage t the furniture, in addition to some mortar falling down the chimney, ported his title to possession after lease in September, 1881, by a ver on the execution of the lease the tions, he should be allowed to year to year for four years after Se the defence the verbal agreement notice to quit on the 30th Septem arrears of rent admitted.—Wit being called for the defence a v were entered for the Defendants.

Stansfield v. Stinton.—This a recover a deposit.—The Defendant deposit under an agreement, and s for non-performance of a contrac and Mr. Lush Wilson appeared for Mr. Kemp, Q.C., and Mr. Clower f
The Plaintiff in January of last ye ment in a daily paper about the Leigh-street, Holborn, in the follow venient, full-licensed public for di tional circumstances, holding a con the centre of a working neighbo monthly; all counter; long lease opportunity for a business man; cas tiff in consequence entered into c the agents named, and agreed to pu by payment of 675*l.*, including a d subsequently appeared that the bre on the premises to the amount of 2 consent to a transfer unless 400*l.* w dismissed and judgment were given for t return of the 100*l.* deposit.

PROBATE AND DIVORCE

(Before Sir J. Hannen, P

Phillpot v. Phillpot and Lin pot v. Phillpot.—These are cross the husband sues for a divorce on t wife's adultery with the Co-respon dent and Co-respondent answered denied the adultery. The wife the against her husband for a judicial ground of his cruelty. This cruelty t
—Mr. Tristram, Q.C., and Mr. Yelv for the Petitioner; Mr. Inderwi Bayford for the Respondent; and M the Co-respondent.—It appeared th married on the 24th September, 18 church of St. Martin's-in-the-Field was at the time twenty-five, and twenty-six. Previous to the marri with another gentleman, but she left the Petitioner. The Petitioner had the business of a chemist, but h tised in it. After the marriage t months at 5, Cavendish-square, a went to Jersey. After they some time the Petitioner found took too much drink, and under its in very violent, and struck him on vario mately the Petitioner employed two his wife's movements, and on the ev of March they traced her to the Old Cavendish-street, where she was f private room with the Co-respondent present suit was instituted.—The Pet in support of the petition, and went stances just detailed. He stated tha went to Jersey he found out his wife'
She would drink three or four glasses she got out of bed in the morning. S violent, and often attacked him.
to restrain her by holding her arms. ever did to her. After they returne conduct was equally bad. She drank and on one occasion attacked him wit beginning of March, 1881, he went ho found her lying on the bed with her was afraid to speak to her. On going he found she was gone. He then emp two, and on the 26th of March he re from them to meet them at the Old H so, and found his wife dining there wi dent. He accused her of unfaithfulne to give him up his rings. She t at him, and also threw a tumb pagne in it at him. They found locked. Soon after he instituted Detectives who accompanied the Pe room corroborated his testimony as to Co-respondent being there. One of t Respondent threw half a tumbler of s face. They both stated that the Re shoes off.—On the conclusion of the
Mr. Inderwick stated he did not in Respondent, and he had no defence Hyde, however, called the Co-respon that he was a commercial traveller in t that in March, 1881, he was lodging Lion. He met the Respondent in © Reproduced with the permission of Cambridge University Library was bound to confess was in no respects in due to Mr. Sidney le in any of will of hearing. [illegible] had never d that very day Mr.

which practically re-
land question (hear,
e members of the Con-
abit of attacking Mr.
had a strong admira-
nd ability, though
wrong in his policy.
of the Prime Minister.
at change, and that he
on the same question.
as a subject on the face ne of Mr. Gladstone's would be his opinion

MARKETS.

AGENCY.)

YORK, APRIL 26.

Cotton steady. Petro-er. Sugar dull and eat, flour, coffee, and Quotations.

26.	Apr. 25.	Apr. 24.
	2 p.c.	2 p.c.
	2¼ p.c.	2¼ p.c.
	4.85¼	4.85¼
	4.90	4.89¾
	5.16¼	5.16¼
	96⅜	96⅜
	102	101⅞
	116¼	116⅜
	121⅛	121⅜
	82	82½
	36⅝	37⅛
	94⅜	94⅜
	35⅜	36¼
	51⅞	52⅛
	28⅜	28⅜
	57⅛	57
	111¼	111¼
	89¼	89¼
	116	116
	127¼	127¼
	136½	136½
	33	33
	61	61
	102¼	104⅞
	139½	140
	48⅛	48⅛
	74⅜	74⅜
		112⅜ 25½ 59⅞ 38½
		79
		7,000
		20,000
		5,000
		12.49
		12.53 12⅛
		28
		77
		78 11⅛ 11⅛
30	5.15 5.35	5.15 5.35
	88	87½
	1.47⅞	1.47
	1.47⅛	1.47⅛
	1.47⅛	1.47⅜
	1.47⅜	1.47⅛
	1.48⅜	1.48⅛
	9⅛	9⅛
	10	10
	9⅛ 10	9⅛ 10
	7⅛	7⅛
	12	12
	11	11
	1d.	1d.
	2½d.	2½d.
	2-32d.	2-32d.
	26	26
	7⅛	7⅛ 8
	23	23

	Apr. 25.	Apr. 24.
	61¼	61¼
	7⅛	7⅛

	Apr. 25.	Apr. 24.
	12	12

lecture at the tems employed by Mr. Bright stated
y, thirty-six miles
tion. It is to be England in which
old mills, the water
drive the Gramme
worked.

GERMANY.—Lon-
nover, Richmond.—
or Germany only, or her, if their parents tation. Preparation
ed and under careful
17. For prospectus
lege, Finchley-road, France and Germany

when his hand is employed upon works of Handel and reverential—has strengthened it by adding to the clarionets, bassoons, viola, and organ. Mr. Prout thoroughly understands what is needed in reconstituting these old works, and his addenda are always in the strictest taste. The "Miss Bretts," if not received with tumultuous demonstrations, evidently found favour with the audience; and the singing of Madame Fassett, Miss Carlotta Elliot, Mr. Kenningham, and Mr. F. King, together with the excellent obbligati of Mr. Carrodus, Radcliff, and Barrett, were esteemed at their true worth. Mendelssohn's 98th Psalm, "Sing to the Lord a new song," very finely rendered by the choir and principals, brought the first part of the concert to a termination. The second part included the overture and third act of Gluck's opera Armida, and "The Banquet of the Pheasants," from Max Bruch's cantata of Odysseus. It was curious to note the difference between the ancient school of expression and the new, as exemplified in these two excerpts. Gluck is always dramatic, even when his music is of the simplest structure, but Herr Bruch cannot be imposing, notwithstanding his strenuous strivings for effect. A good deal might be written in respect to the rendering of the Armida music, but as present criticism must be confined to Miss Carlotta Elliot's admirable assumption of Armida, the declamatory numbers being given by her with a power and thorough dramatic feeling sufficient to prove that this lady would be a valuable addition to the lyric stage. Miss Sophie Robertson was Hate, and the parts of Sidonia and Phœnicia were sung by two lady members of the choir.

At the conclusion, the National Anthem was performed in honour of the approaching wedding of H.R.H. the Duke of Albany, whose name is enrolled upon the list of members of the Bach Choir. Mr. Otto Goldschmidt conducted.

MR. OSCAR BERINGER'S PIANOFORTE RECITAL.

Mr. Oscar Beringer, one of the upholders of the "higher development" school of pianists, gave his fifth annual recital at St. James's Hall yesterday afternoon, assisted by Miss Randegger and Mdlle. Friedlander. With the exception of a fantasia in C minor, by Mozart—and this can only be accepted on sufferance—the selection had nothing of the classic flavour about it beyond Brahm's Sonata in F minor, Op. 5, an early but fine work of the champion of the legitimate school. Otherwise Mr. Beringer sought his models in Chopin, Tausig, Rubinstein, and Liszt, introducing as a novelty Tausig's "Ungarische Zigeunerweisen," a characteristic piece never before heard in London. Liszt's "Concerto Pathetique," for two pianofortes, brought forward Miss Randegger as Mr. Beringer's associate, the young lady interpreting her part of the music with abundance of spirit, and with an easy confidence which will stand her in good stead hereafter. The work, which is elaborate, and perhaps a trifle tedious, was well received, and the performers were recalled at the termination. Mr. Beringer was heard to best advantage, perhaps, in Chopin's ballade in A flat (No. 3)—one of the most exquisite examples of programme-music that exists. The matter left no clue to his meaning, it is true; but to hear the music is at once to understand the nature of the story set forth. Mdlle. Friedlander sang [illegible] accompanied, words by Schubert, Rubinstein, and Lassen to the accompaniment of Mr. Eugene Dubrucq.

The East Surrey Conservative Association has passed a resolution, declaring that—"The Government of Mr. Gladstone has degraded and dishonoured the country at home and abroad; that in particular the state of Ireland is a scandal and a disgrace to the country, and especially the Government which is responsible for its existence; and that this meeting pledges itself to use every effort to replace the present Administration by a Conservative Government, in the hands of which alone the honour and welfare of this country would be secure."

Three boys, named Robinson, Cheshire, and Bridgwood, eleven to fourteen years of age, were charged at the Police-court, Longton, yesterday, with doing malicious damage to the Mineral Railway, belonging to the Duke of Sutherland, running between Trentham and Florence, near Longton. On Sunday, the 16th inst., the Prisoners put some stones between the points at Blurton, and a rail across the metals a little further on. As the points an engine was thrown off the line, and the driver, seeing the rail on the metals when approaching it, doubtless prevented a more terrible catastrophe. Two of the boys were fined 10s. each and birched; the other was discharged with a caution.

One of the employés of a firm of tea dealers in King William-street picked up a bank note for 1000*l.* on Thursday last in Princes-street. The note was folded up. The finder took it to the Bank of England, and by the authorities there he was instructed to take it to Scotland-yard, where he deposited it with the police.—City Press.

"ACTIVE SERVICE."—This cannot wear out the teeth that are brushed night and morning with Rowlands' Odonto, the purest and most fragrant dentifrice ever made. All dentists allow that neither washes or pastes are an effectual for polishing the teeth and keeping them sound and white as a pure and non-gritty tooth powder; such Rowlands' Odonto has always proved itself. Ask any dealer in perfumery for Rowlands' Odonto.—[ADVERTISEMENT.

ROSE'S LIME JUICE CORDIAL.—A Wholesome Family Beverage.—Rose's Lime Juice Cordial is entirely free of spirit, and supplies a delicious drink in water, assisting digestion, cooling and purifying the blood. Recommended by the "Lancet." Purchasers should order Rose's Cordial. Wholesale Stores, 11, Curtain-road, London.—[ADVERTISEMENT.]

of opposition shown by the Chinese Government to the [illegible] of the Treaty of Tientsin, and to the [illegible] of the Treaty of Peking. The Chinese Government has also refused to allow the Japanese Government to establish a consulate at Chefoo, and has declined to receive the Japanese Minister at Peking. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Nagasaki, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Yokohama, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Kobe, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Osaka, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Hakodate, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Niigata, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Hyogo, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Nagasaki, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Yokohama, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Kobe, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Osaka, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Hakodate, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Niigata, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio. The Japanese Government has also refused to allow the Chinese Government to establish a consulate at Hyogo, and has declined to receive the Chinese Minister at Tokio.

the service was proceeded with, the Lessons being read by the senior Canon Prothero, who officiated in the unavoidable absence of the Dean and Canon Duckworth. Psalm 90 to chant by Purcell was rendered by the choir, and afterwards was sung a very beautiful and impressive anthem, "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom," Proverbs iv. 13, 14, 15, 16, composed for the occasion by the organist of the Abbey, Dr. Ridge. At the grave, where the prayers were read by Canon Prothero, the choir sang, "Man that is born of a woman" (Croft), and "Thou knowest, Lord" (Purcell); "I heard a voice from heaven," also by Purcell, followed by Handel's Funeral Anthem, "His body is buried in peace," the whole concluding with the Dead March in Saul. Many there were who remained in the Abbey long after the close of the service to have a last lingering look into the tomb.

A Reuter's telegram from Naples says the students of the University in this city have decided to hold a meeting on the 20th of May for the purpose of doing honour to the memory of the late Mr. Darwin. Signor Tommasi, a member of the Senate, will speak on the occasion.

NAVAL AND MILITARY NEWS.

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS.—Rear Admiral.—John D. M'Crea, late Admiral Superintendent of Malta, to be Admiral Superintendent of Portsmouth Dockyard, vice Admiral the Hon. A. C. Foley. Chief Engineers.—Charles Salmon, to the Northampton, additional for Halifax Yard, vice W. Harvey; William S. Blackburne, to the Phœnix, vice C. Salmon. Engineer.—William J. Abbott, to the Victoria and Albert, vice J. Manley. Midshipmen.—Henry A. Hitchard and Arthur H. Faithfull, to the Sultan; Gerald A. Heyman, to the Impregnable, additional for the Pilot.

The following were the successful candidates at the recent examination of Lieutenants of Militia for commissions in the Line:—A. Chater, 4th East Surrey Regiment, 2113 marks; G. F. H. Diffon, 3d Seaforth Highlanders, 2067; P. de S. Baas, 7th Rifle Brigade, 2056; G. W. Richards, 3d East Lancashire Regiment, 2021; F. D. Maxwell, 4th Norfolk Regiment, 2005; H. Stuart, 4th Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, 1992; G. H. Bretherton, 4th Shropshire Regiment, 1992; B. F. S. Baden-Powell, 3d Essex Regiment, 1985; H. Charm, 3d Devonshire Regiment, 1984; H. J. Downing, West Cork Artillery, 1953; A. B. King, 7th Rifle Brigade, 1958; T. Graut, 3d Seaforth Highlanders, 1937; F. D. Fanshawe, 3d Yorkshire and Lancashire Regiment, 1920; F. Kershaw, 4th Manchester Regiment, 1915; C. J. Wimberley, 3d Seaforth Highlanders, 1915; G. F. Whitehead, 3d Royal Irish Rifles, 1909; H. A. Hopkins, Royal Monmouthsire Engineers, 1909; D. D. Brogden, 3d Suffolk Regiment, 1907; D. G. Stewart, 3d Shropshire Regiment, 1899; A. W. Jauncey, 4th Shropshire Regiment, 1898; C. T. W. Church, 3d Connaught Rangers, 1892; T. C. Benson, 3d East York Regiment, 1885; A. A. Jones, 5th Royal Fusiliers, 1867; S. H. Regent, 4th Royal Irish Fusiliers, 1864; A. C. Way, 4th Royal Munster Fusiliers, 1850; C. D'A. Laurence, 3d South Staffordshire Regiment, 1853; E. H. J. Elphinstone, 3d Royal Sussex Regiment, 1843; C. W. C. Cox, 7th King's Royal Rifle Corps, 1845; A. R. Bustace, Haddington Artillery, 1841; L. J. Shad well, 4th Suffolk Regiment, 1826.

THE SALE OF THE SUNDERLAND LIBRARY.—Messrs. Puttick and Simpson resumed the sale of the books in this Library, at their Auction Rooms, Leicester-square, yesterday afternoon. French historical tracts again occupied a considerable portion of the catalogue, and but few high prices were obtained. The principal sales effected were as follows:—"L'Histoire et Cronique de Clotaire, Premier de ce Nom, Roy des Francois et Monarque des Gaulois; et de sa tres-illustre espouse, Madame Saincte Radegonde, extraicte au vray de plusieurs cronicques antiques et modernes," 1527, 65*l.* (Boileau); "L'Histoire et Discours au Vray du Siege qui fut mis devant la Ville d'Orleans par les Anglois, le Mardy, 12 jour d'Octobre, 1428," date 1577, 15*l.* (Quaritch); "Lettres du Seigneur Ascanio Monlelli, Medecin," a rare and curious astrological tract, 1578, 8*l.* (Quaritch); "Louis XIII., le Guidon Francois; ensemble Radamante Armée de Vengeance," 1602, and 45 other tracts, 8*l.* 15*s.* (Quaritch); "Louis XIV.;" a collection of 519 tracts relating to the four years 1649-53 of the reign of Louis XIV.; the tracts are chiefly satirical, 5*l.* (Bull); "Manifeste du Roy de la Grand Bretagne a ses sujets du Royaume d'Angleterre," 1649, and many other tracts, 8*l.* 10*s.* (Bull); "Le Mercure de Gaillon du Recueil des pieces curieuses tant Hierarchiques que Politiques;" a collection of 24 pieces relative to the diocese of Rouen, 25*l.* (Quaritch); "Montmorency: Brief Discours sur la Vie et Trespas de feu Messire Francois, Duke de Montmorency," &c., 1579, 10*l.* (Tschenoy); "Ordre de S. Michel; le Livre des Ordonnances des Chevaliers de l'Ordre du Tres Chrestien Roy de France Loys XI. a l'honneur de Saint Michel," 12*l.* 10*s.* (Ellis); "Les Tentations espouventable qu'a faict le Diable a une Chambriere du Port Sainct Laudry a Paris qui perdit son sens le jour de la Nostre Dame de Mars," 1573, 6*l.* (Ellis); "La Defence de Jacques de Wesenbeke, jadis Conseillier et Pensionnaire de la Ville d'Anvers, contre les indevées et iniques citations contre luy decretées," 8*l.* 5*s.* (Ellis). The proceeds of the day's sale amounted to 440*l.*

"READ LORD DERBY'S SPEECH ON THRIFT."—Thousands of pounds wasted daily. Save your waste paper. Phillips, Mills, and Co., purchase in any quantity every description of waste paper, old parchment, &c., for remanufacture. Sacks supplied. Vans collect daily within twelve miles of London. Country parcels (booked "Waste paper, per luggage train") receive prompt attention. Price list on application.—Works, 3, Amberley Wharf, Paddington, W.—[ADVERTISEMENT.]

NAVAL AND MILITARY NEWS.

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS.—Rear Admiral.—John D. M'Crea, late Admiral Superintendent of Malta, to be Admiral Superintendent of Portsmouth Dockyard, vice Admiral the Hon. A. C. Foley. Chief Engineers.—Charles Salmon, to the Northampton, additional for Halifax Yard, vice W. Harvey; William S. Blackburne, to the Phœnix, vice C. Salmon. Engineer.—William J. Abbott, to the Victoria and Albert, vice J. Manley. Midshipmen.—Henry A. Hitchard and Arthur H. Faithfull, to the Sultan; Gerald A. Heyman, to the Impregnable, additional for the Pilot.

The following were the successful candidates at the recent examination of Lieutenants of Militia for commissions in the Line:—A. Chater, 4th East Surrey Regiment, 2113 marks; G. F. H. Diffon, 3d Seaforth Highlanders, 2067; P. de S. Baas, 7th Rifle Brigade, 2056; G. W. Richards, 3d East Lancashire Regiment, 2021; F. D. Maxwell, 4th Norfolk Regiment, 2005; H. Stuart, 4th Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, 1992; G. H. Bretherton, 4th Shropshire Regiment, 1992; B. F. S. Baden-Powell, 3d Essex Regiment, 1985; H. Charm, 3d Devonshire Regiment, 1984; H. J. Downing, West Cork Artillery, 1953; A. B. King, 7th Rifle Brigade, 1958; T. Graut, 3d Seaforth Highlanders, 1937; F. D. Fanshawe, 3d Yorkshire and Lancashire Regiment, 1920; F. Kershaw, 4th Manchester Regiment, 1915; C. J. Wimberley, 3d Seaforth Highlanders, 1915; G. F. Whitehead, 3d Royal Irish Rifles, 1909; H. A. Hopkins, Royal Monmouthsire Engineers, 1909; D. D. Brogden, 3d Suffolk Regiment, 1907; D. G. Stewart, 3d Shropshire Regiment, 1899; A. W. Jauncey, 4th Shropshire Regiment, 1898; C. T. W. Church, 3d Connaught Rangers, 1892; T. C. Benson, 3d East York Regiment, 1885; A. A. Jones, 5th Royal Fusiliers, 1867; S. H. Regent, 4th Royal Irish Fusiliers, 1864; A. C. Way, 4th Royal Munster Fusiliers, 1850; C. D'A. Laurence, 3d South Staffordshire Regiment, 1853; E. H. J. Elphinstone, 3d Royal Sussex Regiment, 1843; C. W. C. Cox, 7th King's Royal Rifle Corps, 1845; A. R. Bustace, Haddington Artillery, 1841; L. J. Shad well, 4th Suffolk Regiment, 1826.

THE SALE OF THE SUNDERLAND LIBRARY.—Messrs. Puttick and Simpson resumed the sale of the books in this Library, at their Auction Rooms, Leicester-square, yesterday afternoon. French historical tracts again occupied a considerable portion of the catalogue, and but few high prices were obtained. The principal sales effected were as follows:—"L'Histoire et Cronique de Clotaire, Premier de ce Nom, Roy des Francois et Monarque des Gaulois; et de sa tres-illustre espouse, Madame Saincte Radegonde, extraicte au vray de plusieurs cronicques antiques et modernes," 1527, 65*l.* (Boileau); "L'Histoire et Discours au Vray du Siege qui fut mis devant la Ville d'Orleans par les Anglois, le Mardy, 12 jour d'Octobre, 1428," date 1577, 15*l.* (Quaritch); "Lettres du Seigneur Ascanio Monlelli, Medecin," a rare and curious astrological tract, 1578, 8*l.* (Quaritch); "Louis XIII., le Guidon Francois; ensemble Radamante Armée de Vengeance," 1602, and 45 other tracts, 8*l.* 15*s.* (Quaritch); "Louis XIV.;" a collection of 519 tracts relating to the four years 1649-53 of the reign of Louis XIV.; the tracts are chiefly satirical, 5*l.* (Bull); "Manifeste du Roy de la Grand Bretagne a ses sujets du Royaume d'Angleterre," 1649, and many other tracts, 8*l.* 10*s.* (Bull); "Le Mercure de Gaillon du Recueil des pieces curieuses tant Hierarchiques que Politiques;" a collection of 24 pieces relative to the diocese of Rouen, 25*l.* (Quaritch); "Montmorency: Brief Discours sur la Vie et Trespas de feu Messire Francois, Duke de Montmorency," &c., 1579, 10*l.* (Tschenoy); "Ordre de S. Michel; le Livre des Ordonnances des Chevaliers de l'Ordre du Tres Chrestien Roy de France Loys XI. a l'honneur de Saint Michel," 12*l.* 10*s.* (Ellis); "Les Tentations espouventable qu'a faict le Diable a une Chambriere du Port Sainct Laudry a Paris qui perdit son sens le jour de la Nostre Dame de Mars," 1573, 6*l.* (Ellis); "La Defence de Jacques de Wesenbeke, jadis Conseillier et Pensionnaire de la Ville d'Anvers, contre les indevées et iniques citations contre luy decretées," 8*l.* 5*s.* (Ellis). The proceeds of the day's sale amounted to 440*l.*

"READ LORD DERBY'S SPEECH ON THRIFT."—Thousands of pounds wasted daily. Save your waste paper. Phillips, Mills, and Co., purchase in any quantity every description of waste paper, old parchment, &c., for remanufacture. Sacks supplied. Vans collect daily within twelve miles of London. Country parcels (booked "Waste paper, per luggage train") receive prompt attention. Price list on application.—Works, 3, Amberley Wharf, Paddington, W.—[ADVERTISEMENT.]

BANKRUPTCY COURT.

(Before Mr. Registrar BROUGHAM.)

IN RE JAMES HARVEY.—The Debtor presented a petition for liquidation, was the Corn Exchange, Mark-lane, corn merchant; also carrying on the business at the Abbey Mills, West Ham, under the and Gamman. The liabilities were statement of affairs as follows:—Unsecured, 24,756*l.* It was resolved that the estate dated by arrangement, and Mr. Richard James-avenue, Hampstead, was appointed together with a committee of inspection application of Mr. Brough, and in the material objection, his Honour allowed to be registered.

ECCLESIASTICAL APPOINTMENTS.—The publishes the following list of Preferments:—Rev. Arthur Robert Abbott, Preston with South Town (otherwise Little West Town annexed), Suffolk—on his own Rev. Henry Barber, minister of All Church, Forest-gate: Rev. Henry Brown curate of Cauldon and Waterfall—patron Rev. William John Canton, vicar of Dinton the Trustees; Rev. W. Boyd Carpenter Church, Paddington, canon of Windsor-Rev. Alfred James Carver, B.D., honorary Cathedral; Rev. Charles Henry Chase, Ambleside—patron, Mr. J. H. H. Fleming Collins, M.A., vicar of Kirkburton—patron Ripon; Rev. William de Lacy Evans, Andrew, Leeds—patrons, the Trustees Fraser, rector of Tulla, acting chaplain troops at Garrison at Tulla—patron, the for War; Rev. Francis Parnell Gilbert, Wootton—patron, the Queen; Rev. Charles M.A., curate of St. George's, Hanover Elmley—patron, Mr. A. W. Savile, of Rand Rev. J. W. Harding, B.A., vicar of East Sulgrave, Northants—patron, the Executors Rev. Samuel Henderson, rector of Hoo Susan Brown, of Tunbridge Wells, Rev Clayton Heliop, M.A., chaplain of the Lunatic Asylum; Rev. Henry Hudson, Bradenham, Norfolk—patron, the Bishop William Hope, curate of Bradninch, re Goldsmith-street, Exeter—patron, the Exeter; Rev. Charles Girdlestone Hop of Annesley—patron, the Countess of others; Rev. Newton E. Howe, curate of Thamstow, rector of Luckington, Wiltshire Otley; Rev. Gilbert Lena James, perpetual Gresley—patrons, Simeon's Trustees; Rev. Jagg, rector of Luddenham, perpetual cu Rev. R. Job, B.A., vicar of St. Matthew's curate of St. John the Baptist, Newcastle Timothy Johnson, M.A., rector of Ashby Parishioners; Rev. Lewis Jones, rector with Keckwith and Cogan, the Bishop the Rev. W. H. Cleaver and the Rev. W. G. Knocker, M.A., vicar of All Saints', Hindley; Rev. J. A. Collingwood Mickley, vicar of the new parish of S Prudhoe—patron, the Duke of Northumb Charles Morris, vicar of Strete, near Dar Patteson, M.A., rector of Thorpe-next canon in Norwich Cathedral—patron, the which; Rev. John Barrington Pelham, M.A the Evangelist in Lowestoft—patrons, Mr. Holland, of Benhall Lodge, Suffolk, and James Pulleine, M.A., rector of Kirkby canon in Ripon Cathedral—patron, the Rev. Douglas Cater Randolph, vicar of Bo —patron, the Duke of Beaufort; Rev. T. curate of Oswestry, rector of Trefonen—p Rev. Christopher Ridley, B.A., chaplain Lunatic Asylum at Stone; Rev. William curate of the Northumberland County Asy C. Ernest Smith, curate of Harbour Gra rector of Heard's Content, Newfoundland Stretton, curate of All Souls', Harlesden St. Cyprian's, Brockley; Rev. William of Walpole, Suffolk—patron, the Bishop Rev. W. D. Thatcher, M.A., curate of Kenwyn and Kenwyn—patron, the Bishop Rev. Evan Thomas, vicar of Whitchurch Nantgwyn, Pembroke, vicar of Llan patron, the Bishop of St. David's; Rev. vicar of Knowbury, vicar of Bowne Chancellor; Rev. G. E. Wharam, R Rotherham parish church, vicar of on-Trent.

"POVERTY AND SUFFERING."—"I with debt, poverty, and suffering for family and large bills for doctoring, w I was completely discouraged, until advice of my pastor, I procured B meuced their use, and in one month none of us have seen a sick day since all poor men, you can keep your fa Hop Bitters for less than one dollar know it.—A Working Man." Read.

"VALUABLE DISCOVERY FOR THE is turning grey or white, or falling off Renewer, for it will positively rest or white hair to its original colour, agreeable smell of most "Restorers charmingly beautiful, as well as pr the hair on bald spots, where the s Ask your chemist for the Mexican 3s. 6d. per bottle.—[ADVERTISEMENT.]

© Reproduced with the permission of Cardiff University Library