CHARLES DARWIN.

BORN 12th FEBRUARY, 1809.

DIED 19th APRIL, 1882.

Darwin Memorial Fund.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

On the death of CHARLES DARWIN it was felt that though his name would long live in his works, an effort should be made to provide a visible record of his personal aspect and a memorial of the esteem of his contemporaries. With this end in view a number of his friends formed themselves into a Provisional Committee, which held its first meeting on May 16, 1882. The chair was taken by the late W. Spottiswoode, Esq., D.C.L., F.R.S., who was appointed Chairman of the General Committee which was then selected. John Evans, Esq., Treasurer R.S., was appointed Honorary Treasurer, and Professor T. G. Bonney, F.R.S., and P. E. Dove, Esq., were appointed Honorary Secretaries.

It was decided by the Committee then formed that the co-operation of naturalists in other lands should be invited, and a correspondence was opened with leading men of science in the following countries: America, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Portugal, Norway, Russia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, in which countries Committees were in most cases formed. Sincere thanks are tendered to the members of these Committees for their hearty co-operation, and for the liberal contributions which, as will be seen, have been forwarded by them in aid of the Darwin Memorial Fund, which has thus become a tribute of honour from the whole civilised world.

It was further decided that a part of the Fund thus collected should be applied to the erection of a statue, and that application should be made to the Trustees of the British Museum to allow it
